

CASE STUDY—

STREAMLINING COSTS DURING THE TRANSITION TO IN-HOUSE THERAPY

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Management by Infinity Rehab (MIR) brings therapy management to our customers seamlessly. With every solution for meeting your rehab needs, we help you assess your readiness for each option and determine the cost-benefit to making a change successful.

Our 25 years of experience running high-performing programs under capitated arrangements give us the experience to quickly assess your program, identify opportunities to improve performance and cost-effectiveness, and bring compliance into standards.

CLIENT CHALLENGE

MIR's client with 5 facilities faced a more challenging cost transition than anticipated to an in-house therapy program. The client experienced cost surprise due to the unexpectedly high costs of hiring and employing therapists, compounded by an inefficient treatment model.

SOLUTION

- MIR crafted an updated, cost-effective staffing model specific to each community
- MIR refreshed and redesigned open therapy job positions
- MIR developed tracking system for PRN and contract usage to identify and minimize these high labor cost areas
- MIR helped this customer develop an efficient treatment model that delivers high-quality, cost-effective care for low reimbursement cases

The client now benefits from continuous support and regular check-ins from MIR specialists.

RESULTS

COST-CONTROLS
RESULTED IN A
HIGH-EFFICIENCY
WORK FORCE

ORGANIZATIONAL SAVINGS OF
