

COVID-19 QUARANTINE FAQ'S

- Q: Do I have to use PTO?

A: You are NOT required to use PTO – you may use unpaid time

- Q: Will I receive separate “sick pay” for being on a COVID?

A: If you work in a facility located in California and Colorado, you WILL receive COVID Sick Pay. Currently, all other states do not qualify for COVID sick pay

- Q: Are there any other options for pay?

A: Yes. if an employee tests positive for COVID and it believes the virus was contracted from the facility, there is an option to file a workers' compensation claim. You may also be able to file an unemployment claim if exposed outside of work. Check with the benefits department for additional details.

- Q: Who should I report it to if I am on a quarantine?

A: Please inform your DOR who will send a worksheet to notify all the appropriate individuals. If you are not sure who your current DOR is, please notify your ARD.

- Q: How do I know when to return from quarantine?

A: Some facilities have different quarantine periods than others. Please refer to the instructions provided by your facility.
